

SPAULDING TOOK FIRST

Easily Defeated Richmond High 44 to 15

IN A BASKET BALL GAME

Although Light This Year, Spaulding Is Exceedingly Lively, and Will Make Its Opponents Hurtle to Keep Up.

The reorganized Spaulding high school basketball team played its first game of the season at the Church street gymnasium last evening before an enthusiastic audience which filled every available seat in the building. Its opponent was the Richmond high school team and although the Richmond team is slightly heavier than the Spaulding five, the latter team easily won by a score of 44 to 15.

The Spaulding team has had several changes since last season. Riley playing left guard, Maiden who played on last season's second team being added, and Harry Averill. The only players from last year's team are Arthur Averill, who is playing center this season, and Grigg, who put up a rattling game at left forward.

The Spaulding boys had the Richmond players, who showed lack of practice, easily outplayed all through last evening's contest and considered that it was the first game of the season an excellent exhibition was given. The first half was a walkover for Spaulding's team, which started with a basket by Maiden, followed by others in rapid succession by Grigg and Maiden, whose playing was the feature of the game, with Grigg a good second. Richmond was unable to score but four points during the first period, while Spaulding tallied a total of 25.

In the second half, the Richmond five braced up somewhat and showed considerable ability in passing and scored a total of 11 points, while Spaulding took 19. Neither team showed much regard for fouls during the second period and both were penalized several times.
